

Table I. Financial Capital and the Obama Administration

Name	Selected Finance-Related Positions	Connection to Financial Sector
Department of the Treasury
Timothy F. Geithner	Secretary of the Treasury	President and Chief Executive Officer, New York Federal Reserve; Rubin/Summers protégé
Neal S. Wolin	Deputy Secretary of the Treasury	2001-07 Executive Vice President, Hartford Financial Services Group; 2007-09 President, Property-casualty Operations, Hartford
Mark A. Patterson	Chief of Staff to Treasury Secretary	2004-07 Vice President and lobbyist, Goldman Sachs; 2007-08 Managing Director
Jeffrey A. Goldstein	Under Secretary for Domestic Finance (in charge of oversight of TARP)	2004-2010 Partner, Managing Director, Hellman & Friedman, private equity firm; partnership income around $30 million over 18-month period (2008-2009), plus from $5 to $25 million in bonuses
Herbert M. Allison, Jr.	Assistant Secretary for Financial Stability and Counselor to the Secretary	1971-99 President, Merrill; 2008-09 President and CEO, Fannie Mae
Michael S. Barr	Assistant Secretary for Financial Institutions	Former Special Assistant to Treasury Secretary Rubin
Mary John Miller	Assistant Secretary for Financial Markets	26 years at T. Rowe Price Group; 2004-08 Director, Fixed Income Division
Marisa Lago	Assistant Secretary for International Markets and Development	2001-08 Citigroup Global Head of Compliance
Kim N. Wallace	Assistant Secretary for Legislative Affairs	1994-2008 Vice President of Equity Research and Telecommunications Analysis, Lehman Brothers; 2008-09 Managing Director, Barclays
Gene Sperling	Counselor to the Secretary of the Treasury	Former Director of National Economic Council; 2008 Consultant for Goldman Sachs (paid $887,000); Rubin/Summers protégé
Matthew Kabaker	Deputy Assistant Secretary of Treasury	1998-2009 Managing Director, Blackstone Group, LP
Lewis Alexander	Counselor to Treasury Secretary Geithner	1999-2009 Chief Economist, Citigroup
National Economic Council
Lawrence H. Summers	Director of National Economic Council	Former Treasury Secretary under Rubin; 2007-2008 part-time Managing Director, hedge fund D.E. Shaw; 2008 received $5 million in compensation, $2.8 million in speaking fees from finance sector
Jason Furman	Deputy Director, National Economic Council	2007-08 Director of Hamilton Project, Brookings Institute (founded by Rubin)
Diana Farrell	Deputy Director, National Economic Council	1987-89 Financial Analyst at Goldman Sachs; 1991-2002 Director at McKinsey; 2002-09 Director of McKinsey Global Institute
Other Key Positions
Paul Volcker	Chairman, Economic Recovery Advisory Board	1965-69 Vice President, Chase Manhattan; 1979-87 Federal Reserve Chairman
Adam Storch	Chief Operating Officer of the Securities and Exchange Commission's Enforcement Division	2004-09 Goldman Sachs Vice President in the Business Intelligence Group
Gary Gensler	Chairman, Commodity Futures Trading Commission	1988-97 Partner, Goldman Sachs (various positions); Undersecretary of the Treasury for Rubin/Summers
Rahm Emanuel	White House Chief of Staff	1999-2002 Investment banker at Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein; former board member Freddie Mac
Michael Froman	Deputy Assistant to the President and Deputy National Security Advisor	1999-2009 Citigroup executive, including Managing Director; President and CEO of Citilnsurance; Rubin's chief of staff
Peter Orszag	Budget Director	Director, Hamilton Project, Brookings (founded by Rubin)

Sources: WhoRunsGovernment.com (Washington Post); OpenSecrets.com; U.S. Department of Treasury website; National Economic Council Web site; various other Web sites; "Top Economic Aide Discloses Income," Washington Post, April 4, 2009; "Hedge Fund Paid Summers $5.2 Million in Past Year," Wall Street Journal, April 5, 2009.